

THE GREEK INTERPRETERS

Of East Lansing

Fall Meeting: October 5, 2016, MSU University Club

The Five Orange Pips

An Acrostic prepared by The Chemist, William Reusch

The first letter of each correct answer, read vertically, will form a phrase.

1. _____ the city from which the first warning letter was mailed.
2. _____ Openshaw's father patented this type of tire.
3. _____ how John Openshaw planned to return home.
4. _____ the club where Major Prendergast was involved in a scandal.
5. _____ where Openshaw's toe caps were soiled by a distinctive clay and chalk mixture.
6. _____ the gale that beat against the windows of 221B.
7. _____ - _____ Openshaw used one (also part of the title of another story in the canon)
8. _____ the dock where Holmes looked for the Lone Star.
9. _____ this chamber was the focus of an unpublished case.
10. _____ Openshaw's uncle.
11. _____ the author of a sea-story Watson was reading.
12. _____ where Openshaw's uncle had a small estate.
13. _____ - _____ a sprig of these was sometimes used as a warning by KKK.
14. _____ what John Openshaw had done after receiving the orange pips.
15. _____ - _____ Holmes proposes to send a devilish one to Capt. Calhoun
16. _____ in addition to advice, Openshaw came to Holmes for this.
17. _____ (relentless & inexorable) what Openshaw believed he was in the grasp of.

18. _____ the Lone Star's destination and home port.
19. _____ how Watson referred to Holmes' knowledge of anatomy.
20. _____ what Openshaw's father thought of the orange pips.
21. _____ the city from which the second warning letter was mailed.
22. _____ how Holmes characterized the police imbecility.
23. _____ where the shattered stern-post of the Lone Star was sighted.
24. _____ the city from which the last warning letter was mailed.